WAREHAM MAN INDICTED ON MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE IN OVERDOSE DEATH

BROCKTON – Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz announced that Steven D. Foss (DOB: 9/15/81) of Wareham, was indicted today by the Plymouth County Grand Jury on one count of Manslaughter, in connection with a drug overdose that occurred in February. Foss was additionally indicted on five counts of Distribution of a Class A Substance (Heroin) and one count of Possession with the Intent to Distribute a Class A Substance (Heroin).

On February 21, 2015, Wareham Police received a 911 call for a suspected drug overdose. Wareham Police arrived at the scene and found the female victim already deceased. State Police assigned to DA Cruz's Office were notified and responded to the scene.

Today's indictments allege that Foss sold heroin to the female victim.

District Attorney Cruz commended the work of State Police Detectives assigned to his Office and Wareham Police for investigating this case.

Foss will be arraigned in Brockton Superior Court at a later date.

Assistant District Attorney Richard Linehan is prosecuting the case.
